

The Geography of Glendalough: Glaciation

Admire the view of the valley from the eastern shore of the Upper Lake. From this position, we can see several features that indicate the area was affected by glaciation in the past.

Features

List the glacial features that you see and briefly describe each feature.

Feature	Description

Using your map, identify the glacial feature at the following locations:
T 076 990

Using your map, identify the glacial feature at the following locations:
T 100 962

Has the landscape of Glendalough been shaped mainly by glaciers eroding or depositing materials. Explain your choice.

The movement of the glaciers through Glendalough was mainly towards the East/ West/ North/ South. (Circle the correct option)

Field Sketch

Draw a field sketch of the valley the eastern shore of the Upper Lake. On your sketch, identify and label some landforms which indicate that Glendalough was affected by glaciation in the past.

